

Curriculum Vitae for Rolv Olav Eide

Born in Oslo 26.07.1970.

Education from Trondheim Jazz Conservatory 1990-94.

Freelance musician as drummer and percussionist since 1994.

Has played with numerous solo artists, bands, choirs, orchestras, wind bands, theatre groups and dance groups in many different genres.

Teaching drums and percussion in Toneheim Folkehøgskole and several high schools.

Has done 1500 concerts with the drum duo "Rubbel & Beat".

Has been a Yamaha endorser since 2010.

Has played with a lot of Norwegian artists and groups, most internationally acclaimed are:

Tord Gustavsen (jazz pianist)
Tine Thing Helseth (classical trumpeter)
Stian Carstensen (multi-instrumentalist)
Mats Eilertsen (jazz bassist)
Kristin Asbjørnsen (afro-american spiritual singer)
Terje Isungset ("Nature"-percussionist)
Frikar Dance Company (Norwegian folk dance group)
Ole Edvard Antonsen (classical trumpeter)
Olga Konkova (jazz pianist)
John Pål Inderberg (jazz saxophonist)

Some of the current musical projects:

Pärvo Art Trio (electro-acoustic noise band)
Frikar Dance Company (Norwegian folk dance group)
Tord Gustavsen (his choir projects and charity concerts)
Tough Daddy ("Dirty Dozen"-band)
Daniel Nolgård Trio (acoustic piano trio)
Frayed (rock band)
Gramophones (party band)
Trond Kjelsås Quartet (jazz quartet)